2008 JAMES BEARD FOUNDATION AWARDS
RESTAURANT AND CHEF SEMIFINALIST NOMINEES NOW AVAILABLE

FINAL NOMINATIONS TO BE ANNOUNCED ON MARCH 24, 2008

New York, NY (28 February 2008) - The list of Restaurant and Chef semifinalists for the 2008 James Beard Foundation Awards, the nation's most prestigious honors for culinary professionals, is now available at www.jamesbeard.org. Selected from thousands of online entries, the prestigious group of semifinalists in the 19 Restaurant and Chef categories represents a wide variety of culinary talent, from legendary chefs and dining destinations in 10 different regions across the United States, to the nation's best new restaurants and rising star chefs. On Monday, March 24, 2008, the James Beard Foundation will announce the final nominees – five in each category, narrowed down from the list of semifinalists by a panel of more than 400 judges – during an invitation-only press breakfast at the historic James Beard House in New York City's West Village. The winners will be announced on Sunday, June 8, 2008 at the Awards Ceremony and Gala Reception, the highly-anticipated annual celebration taking place at Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center.

The James Beard Foundation Awards is the nation's preeminent recognition program honoring professionals in the food and beverage industries. The Awards celebrate outstanding achievement in each of the following categories: Restaurants and Chefs, Books, Journalism, Restaurant Design and Graphics, Broadcast Media, and special achievement awards. Each category has an individual Awards Committee made up of industry professionals who volunteer their time to oversee the policies, procedures, and selection of judges for their respective Awards program.

How the Restaurant and Chef Awards Work

The James Beard Foundation holds open calls for entries beginning in mid-October of each year. This year, over 9,600 entries were received. These entries are tabulated for the Restaurant and Chef Committee by the independent accounting firm Lutz & Carr. Based on the results and eligibility requirements for each award, the committee then produces a nominating ballot that lists the 20 semifinalists in each of the 19 Restaurant and Chef awards categories, which include Outstanding Restaurant, Best Chef in 10 different U.S. regions, Rising Star Chef of the Year, Outstanding Wine Service, and Best New Restaurant.

The list of semifinalists is then sent to an independent volunteer panel of more than 400 judges from across the country (including leading regional restaurant critics, food and wine editors, culinary educators, and past James Beard Foundation Award winners), who vote on specific award categories to determine the final nominees. Lutz & Carr tallies the votes that narrow them down to the final list of five nominees in each category, which are announced during the nominations breakfast at the James Beard House in March. The same judges then vote on these five nominees to select the winners. The governing Awards Committee, board of trustees, and staff of the James Beard Foundation do not vote. The results are kept confidential until the presentation of winners at the Awards Ceremony in June.

Renowned chefs Dan Barber (Blue Hill, Blue Hill at Stone Barns) and Odessa Piper (L'Etoile) will serve as Chef Co-Chairs of the 2008 James Beard Foundation Awards. This year's events will celebrate "Artisanal America" and honor those artisans and craftsmen who work to provide the finest ingredients to the nation's top restaurants and chefs. The annual Media Awards Dinner will take place on Friday, June 6, 2008 at the Hudson Theatre, an invitation-only event hosted by celebrated writers and cookbook authors, Matt and Ted Lee. The Media Awards honor the nation's preeminent food journalists and culinary broadcast programs. This will be followed by the Awards Ceremony and Gala Reception on Sunday, June 8, 2008 at Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center, during which the Restaurant and Chef awards will be handed out, along with book honors and a number of special achievement awards. All award winners receive a certificate and a bronze medallion engraved with the James Beard Foundation Awards insignia.

About the James Beard Foundation

The James Beard Foundation is dedicated to celebrating, preserving, and nurturing America's culinary heritage and diversity in order to elevate the appreciation of our culinary excellence. A cookbook author and teacher with an encyclopedic knowledge about food, James Beard, who died in 1985, was a champion of American cuisine. He helped educate and mentor generations of professional chefs and food enthusiasts. Today, the Beard Foundation continues in the same spirit by administering a number of diverse programs that include educational initiatives, food industry awards, scholarships to culinary schools, and publications, and by maintaining the historic James Beard House in New York City's Greenwich Village as a "performance space" for visiting chefs. For more information, please visit www.jamesbeard.org.
